(1) Entry forms for admission to the B.A., B.Sc. (Pass, Subsidiary and Honours) and B.Com. Examinations of 1942, after they have been duly filled in, and signed by the candidates and duly certified by the heads of the departments concerned, where necessary, must be presented by the candidates to the Provosts of halls concerned not later than Monday, the 9th March 1942. Entry forms are obtainable at the offices of the Provosts of the halls concerned. Entry forms which are not complete in respect of all entries made therein, will not be accepted by the Provosts.

Irregular candidates must submit to the Provost of the hall two copies of the entry form, one being marked "Duplicate". They must specifically state in the examination entry form whether they attended classes during the current session, i.e., in 1941-42.

(2) Candidates who do not submit their examination entry forms by the due date, viz., by the 9th March 1942, may submit them by Tuesday, the 19th March 1942, on payment of a delay fine of annas eight per day with a maximum fine of Rs. 5 (Rupees five), after which no examination entry form will be accepted.

Candidates must submit their Intermediate Certificates to the Provosts for verification of the correctness of their names written in the entry forms. Candidates who do not produce their Intermediate certificates to the Provosts along with their examination entry forms, must pay an additional delay fine of Re. 1 (Rupee one) per day with a maximum of Rs. 5 (Rupees five). BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.*NOTIFICATION.

No. 1992L.C.—23rd December 1941.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 19th December, 1941, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE ADVOCATES' ROBES BILL, 1941.

WHEREAS it is expedient to help in the creation of a unified Bar for the Province of Bengal and as a necessary step towards that end to prescribe a uniform robe for Advocates of the High Court, it is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act shall be called the Advocates' Robes Act
2. This Act shall come into operation in this whole of Bengal on the day on which it is published in the Calcutta Gazette and it shall apply to all Advocates enrolled as such in the High Court.
3. In this Act the words "High Court" shall mean the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal in its Original as well as Appellate Jurisdiction and the word "Advocates" shall have the same meaning and import as in the Indian Bar Council Act XXXVIII of 1926.
4. Within a period to be prescribed by the High Court not being more than three months from the date on which this Act comes into force the High Court shall prescribe one uniform robe for all Advocates appearing in Court without reference to any other robe such Advocates might be entitled to wear as a member of any learned body.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It appears that the question of robes for its Advocates has long been agitating the High Court at least since 1929.

While trying to dispose of the matter in the interests of uniformity the Court made rules which led not to uniformity but really to diversity. At present there are three classes of robes worn in the High Court—

- (i) An Advocate's robe prescribed by the Court,
- (ii) A Barrister's gown,
- (iii) A blue gown prescribed by the Court in 1907 for Vakils.

Recently there have been instances where the Court has itself not followed its own rules.

The idea for a long time has been to have a self-contained Indian Bar. Uniformity in robes is a step towards that end.

This Bill is therefore introduced to secure that end.

BROJENDRA MOHAN MAITRA,

Member-in-charge.

S. K. D. GUPTA,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1994L.C.—23rd December, 1941.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 19th December, 1941, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE (BENGAL AMENDMENT) BILL, 1941.

BILL

to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in its application to Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in its application to Bengal, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1941.

2. In section 196 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in its application to the Province of Bengal (hereinafter referred to as the said Code) after the word and figures "section 127", the words, figures and letter, "and section 171-F so far as it relates to the offence of personation" shall be inserted.

3. In Schedule II to the said Code—

(a) In the entry in the second column of the items relating to section 171-F the words "and personation" shall be omitted.

(b) After the said item so amended the following item shall be inserted, namely

Do.	Personation at an election.	May arrest without warrant	do.	do.	do.	do.	do.
-----	-----------------------------	----------------------------	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----

and

(c) in the entry in the third column of the item relating to section 171-G for the word "Ditto" the words "shall not arrest without warrant" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

With the enlargement of franchise false personation at elections to local bodies and Legislature has increased. It is necessary that the offence of personation should be taken out from the category of section 196 of Criminal Procedure Code and should be made a cognizable offence.

NUR AHMED,
Member-in-charge.

(ii) after sub-rule (4), the following sub-rules shall be added, namely:—

"(5) The appropriate Government may, if it considers it necessary or expedient so to do, by order authorise any person to take over from a local authority and administer in accordance with such directions as may be issued from time to time by that Government such of the services of the local authority as may be specified in the order; and any person so authorised may, for the purpose of administering the said services, exercise all or any of the powers of the local authority or of its officers, issue such directions as he thinks fit to the officers or servants of the local authority and employ any outside agency, and all charges and expenses incurred by him shall, except to such extent, if any, as the appropriate Government may direct to be paid out of its revenues, be paid out of the funds of the local authority.

(6) If the appropriate Government is of opinion that any local authority has failed to comply, or has delayed in complying, with any order made under sub-rule (5), or that it is necessary or expedient so to do for ensuring the due maintenance of the vital services of the authority in the event of hostile attack, the appropriate Government may by order supersede the local authority for such period as may be specified in the order.

(b) by order direct that the local authority shall be re-constituted in the manner provided for the constitution of the authority by or under the ordinary law relating thereto, and in such case any persons who vacated their offices under clause (a) of sub-rule (7) shall not be deemed disqualified for election, appointment or nomination; or

(c) by order direct that the local authority shall be re-constituted by the persons who vacated their offices under clause (a) of sub-rule (7) and shall recommence functioning as if it had not been superseded;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Excess Profits Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 1941.

(2) It shall come into force at once; but effect shall not be given to the amendment hereby made in the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940, by section 3 in the making of any assessment under that Act in respect of any chargeable accounting period which is a "previous year" for an assessment under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for any year before the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1943. XV of 1940.
XI of 1922.

Amendment of section 4, Act XV of 1940.

2. In sub-section (2) of section 4 of the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words beginning with "and as if the excess of profits" and ending with "the whole chargeable accounting period" the following shall be substituted, namely:— XV of 1940.

"and as if the excess of profits of that separate chargeable accounting period were an apportioned part of the excess of profits arising in the whole period determined in accordance with the provisions of section 7A".

Amendment of section 5, Act XV of 1940.

3. In section 5 of the said Act, after the second proviso the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided further that this Act shall not apply to any business the whole of the profits of which accrue or arise in an Indian State; and where the profits of a part of a business accrue or arise in an Indian State, such part shall, for the purposes of this provision, be deemed to be a separate business the whole of the profits of which accrue or arise in an Indian State, and the other part of the business shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a separate business."

Insertion of new section 7A in Act XV of 1940.

4. After section 7 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Special provision for chargeable accounting period falling partly before and partly after the end of March, 1941.

7A. (1) In the case of a chargeable accounting period such as is referred to in sub-section (2) of section 4, the excess of profits of each of the separate chargeable accounting periods into which the whole chargeable period is deemed to be divided for the purposes of that sub-section, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4), and in those sub-sections—

(a) references to the whole period, the first part of the period, and the second part of the period shall be construed, respectively, as references to the whole of the chargeable accounting period deemed to be divided, so much thereof as falls before the end of March, 1941, and so much thereof as falls after the said end of March;

(b) "excess profits" means the amount by which the profits for any period exceed the standard profits for that period.

(2) The profits or loss of, and the standard profits for, the whole period shall be computed first on the basis that rule 5A of the First Schedule and rule 2A of the Second Schedule do not apply to the period, and secondly on the basis that the said rules do apply to the period, and it shall then be ascertained, on each basis, whether there are excess profits or a deficiency of profits for the whole period, and, if so, what is the amount thereof.

(3) There shall be deemed to be for the first part of the period excess profits or a deficiency of profits, as the case may be, equal to an apportioned part of the excess profits or deficiency of profits ascertained under sub-section (2) on the first basis mentioned therein, and there shall be deemed to be for the second part of the period excess profits or a deficiency of profits, as the case may be, equal to an apportioned part of the excess profits or deficiency of profits ascertained under sub-section (2) on the second basis mentioned therein; and for the purpose of giving relief for deficiencies of profits under section 7, the first part of the period and the second part of the period shall each be treated, as if it were a separate chargeable accounting period.

(4) Any apportionment required to be made by sub-section (3) shall be made by reference to the number of months and fractions of months in each of the parts of the whole period.

Substitution of new section for section 10, Act XV of 1940. Artificial transactions.

5. For section 10 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"10. (1) In computing profits for the purposes of this Act no deduction shall be made in respect of any transaction or operation of any nature if and so far as it appears that the transaction or operation has artificially reduced or would artificially reduce the profits.

(2) If the Excess Profits Tax Officer is satisfied that any person has entered into or carried out any transaction or operation by which the profits have been or would be artificially reduced, he may, with the previous approval of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner direct that such person shall pay, in addition to any excess profits tax for which he is or, but for such transaction or operation, would be liable, a penalty not exceeding the tax evaded or sought to be evaded."

Insertion of new section 10A in Act XV of 1940.

Transactions designed to avoid or reduce liability to excess profits tax.

6. After section 10 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"10A. (1) Where the Excess Profits Tax Officer is of opinion that the main purpose for which any transaction or transactions was or were effected [whether before or after the passing of the Excess Profits Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 1941] was the avoidance or reduction of liability to excess profits tax, he may, with the previous approval of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner, make such adjustments as respects liability to excess profits tax as he considers appropriate so as to counteract the avoidance or reduction of liability to excess profits tax which would otherwise be effected by the transaction or transactions.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), the powers conferred thereby extend—

(a) to the charging with excess profits tax of persons who but for the adjustments would not be chargeable with any tax or would not be chargeable to the same extent;

(b) to the charging of a greater amount of tax than would be chargeable but for the adjustments.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Excess Profits Tax Officer under this section may appeal in the prescribed time and manner to the Appellate Tribunal."

"or

(d) in the case of any business which includes the winning of any mineral (including mineral oil) the winning of which is of exceptional importance for the prosecution of the present war, an increase in the output of the mineral which was essential in the national interest and which has had the effect of shortening the period during which but for such increased wartime output the source of the mineral might have been expected to be exhausted;".

Schedule I,
Act XV of 1940.

8. In Schedule I to the said Act,—

(a) after rule 5 the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

Provided that, as respects any such chargeable accounting period which commences before the said end of March, the application of this rule shall be subject to the provisions of section 7A of this Act:

Provided further that this rule shall not apply to the computation of profits of any business for any chargeable accounting period the standard profits for which are ascertained by reference to the minimum amount specified in sub-section (4) of section 6 of this Act:

Provided further that where a direction has been given by a Board of Referees under sub-section (3) of section 6, or by the Central Board of Revenue under sub-section (1) of section 26 of this Act, that the standard profits shall be computed as if the profits during the standard period were such greater amount as it thinks just, such amount shall be increased by the amount of the interest on or other consideration for the borrowed money during the standard period.

(2) In this rule and in rule 2A of the Second Schedule "borrowed money" means borrowed money which, apart from the provisions of the said rule 2A, would have been deductible in computing capital.';

"12. (1) In computing the profits of any chargeable accounting period no deduction shall be allowed in respect of expenses in excess of the amount which the Excess Profits Tax Officer considers reasonable and necessary having regard to the requirements of the business and, in the case of directors' fees or other payments for services, to the actual services rendered by the person concerned:

Provided that no disallowance under this rule shall be made by the Excess Profits Tax Officer unless he has obtained the prior authority of the Commissioner of Excess Profits Tax.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 7th November 1941:—

L. A. BILL No. 35 of 1941.

A Bill to make provision for the restoration of the Buddha Gaya Temple and its premises to Buddhists and for the better management of the same.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the restoration of the Buddha Gaya Temple to the Buddhists and for the better management of the same; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force immediately.

(c) "The Mahanth" means the presiding priest for the time being of the Saivite Monastery at Buddha Gaya.

(d) "Committee" means the managing committee constituted under the provisions of this Act.

(e) "Court" means the Court of the District Judge of Gaya.

and control.

3. The Government of India shall immediately, on the passing of this Act, establish a Committee as hereinafter provided and entrust it with the management and control of the Temple Land, the Temple and the worship in it.

4. (1) The Committee shall consist of the Mahanth and nine representatives of the Buddhists of India, Burma and Ceylon to be nominated by the Governor General of India in consultation with the Governments of Burma and Ceylon.

(2) Any vacancy that occurs in the Committee shall be reported by the Committee to His Excellency the Governor General within three months from the date of its occurrence.

Rights of Hindus.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the rules framed thereunder, Hindus of every sect shall have access to the Temple to worship the image of Lord Buddha and to the Temple Land to offer Pinda under the Bodhi Tree to the north of the Temple, provided that nothing in this section shall enable any person to slaughter goat or any other animal on the Temple Land for any purpose religious or otherwise.

Provided that the Court may, if it is satisfied that there is sufficient cause for so doing, extend the time allowed for the furnishing of any statement of accounts under this section.

Power to make rules.

8. (1) The Committee may, from time to time, make rules to carry into effect the purposes of this Act.

- (b) the improvement of the Temple Land;
- (c) the welfare and safety of the pilgrims;
- (d) the safe custody of statements of accounts and other documents relating to the Temple or the Temple Land; and
- (e) the maintenance of cordial relations between the Buddhist and the Hindu pilgrims.

Savings.

9. Nothing in this Act shall affect any other enactment for the time being in force in British India providing for the preservation of ancient monuments.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Maha Bodhi Temple at Buddha Gaya is the most sacred shrine of the Buddhist world as it stands on the spot where Lord Buddha attained Supreme wisdom. It is to the Buddhist what Mecca is to the Muslim, Ajodhya to the Hindu and Jerusalem to the Christian. It is in the hands of a non-Buddhist, the Saivite Mahanth for Buddha Gaya. For many years past the Buddhists have been greatly dissatisfied with his management of the Temple and the Temple Land. They have expressed their strong desire to have them restored to their control. The desire is but natural and this Bill is intended to make provision for the better management of the Maha Bodhi Temple and the Temple Land and for their restoration to the Buddhists of India, Burma and Ceylon without prejudice to the right of Hindus to worship the image of Buddha in the Temple and to offer Pinda at the Bodhi Tree to the north of the Temple.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council; and Bills published before introduction in that Council

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1311.L.C.—26th January 1942.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Good Conduct Prisoners Probation and Temporary Release Bill, 1940, sponsored by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C., with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

S. K. D. GUPTA,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Good Conduct Prisoners Probational and Temporary Release Bill, 1940.

(As introduced in the Council by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C.)

We, the members of the Select Committee to which the Bengal Good Conduct Prisoners Probational and Temporary Release Bill, 1940, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 22nd August, 1941, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matters recommended by us to be omitted have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters recommended to be inserted have been underlined.

The Committee met on the 24th November, 1941, and concluded their sitting on the 28th November, 1941.

The Bill has not been altered by our recommendation to an extent requiring republication.

The changes made by us are detailed below.

Long title and preamble.—We have made certain drafting changes in the long title and in the preamble of the Bill.

Short title.—We have changed the short title and the year.

Clause 1.—Sub-clause (iii).—We consider that the date on which this Act is to come into force should be left to the discretion of the Provincial Government, who will, after due consideration, publish the necessary notifications in this respect in the Official Gazette. We have accordingly made consequent changes in this clause.

Clause 2.—We have renumbered it as sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause 2 and have made certain additions and alterations which are of a drafting nature.

We do not consider it advisable that the provisions of this clause should be made applicable to persons sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of fine or imprisonment for failure to furnish security under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, when such imprisonment is not in addition to a substantive sentence of imprisonment.

We have also omitted the existing proviso at the end of this clause in consequence of our insertion of the new clause 6A.

Clauses 3, 4, 5 and 6.—We consider that certain drafting alterations are necessary in all these clauses and have accordingly made the necessary changes.

New clause 6A.—In consequence of our omission of the proviso to clause 2, we have inserted this new clause incorporating therein certain provisions regarding delegation of powers, under this Bill, by the Provincial Government to Commissioner of Police and the District Magistrates within their respective jurisdictions.

Clause 7.—We have made certain drafting changes in this clause which we consider to be necessary.

We are also of opinion that the punishment suggested at the end of this clause (for the offence of escaping from the supervision or authority of the prescribed person, institution, or society while on temporary release), is not sufficient and as such we consider it desirable that the penalty (for the breach of condition of a licence) should be equal to the term of imprisonment awarded in the original sentence which is similar to the penalty prescribed in section 27 of the Prisoners Act, 1900 (Act III of 1900). We have accordingly made consequent changes in this clause.

Clause 8.—We have redrafted this clause.

Minute of dissent by Khan Sahib Abul-Qasem, M. L. S.

This Bill appears to be modelled on the United Provinces Prisoners' Release on Probation Act (United Provinces Act No. VIII of 1938). I am not aware if there are in Bengal such secular institutions or societies as are contemplated in clause 2. I am not at all sure if the Bill is likely to be a practicable and useful measure. The chief value of imprisonment as a punishment from the point of view of society is its deterrent effect and it should be seriously considered whether a measure like the present one is not calculated to minimise that effect. It is also worthy of careful consideration whether the provisions of the Bill are not likely to be availed of mainly, if not solely, by educated and well-to-do prisoners.

[NOTE.—All matters omitted by the Select Committee have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters inserted have been underlined.]

powers.

Rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide—

(1) [For] for prescribing the form of, and the conditions [of] to be contained in, licences on which prisoners may be released[.].

(1a) for prescribing the manner in which an order of revocation of a licence shall be served on the person whose licence is revoked.

(2) [For] for defining the powers and duties of [Government officer,] servants of the Crown, societies, persons under whose authority or supervision conditionally [or temporarily] released prisoners may be kept.

[(3) Generally for carrying out into effects all the purposes of the Act.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is an admitted fact that the persons are sent to prison with a view to their reformation. The old theory of punishment for punishment's sake has long been discarded. It is a generally accepted view of the civilized world that prisoners should be given every opportunity, every possible encouragement to reform themselves while undergoing their terms of sentence in prison. This simple Bill has been framed with a view to empower the Provincial Government or any officer to whom the authority of the Provincial Government is delegated to release the good conduct person on licence to release the prisoners temporarily in order to give them opportunity to see their relatives at home. There are similar provisions in sections 21 to 27 of the Prisoners Act of 1900, but these provisions are confined to cases of penal servitude only and are only applicable in cases of European and Americans only. Hence there is a great need of an Act like that of the proposed Act in Bengal.

Conditions
of pay-

temporary

which clause 30
applies.

11. When a person who, but for the provisions of clause 30 of this Scheme, would have been entitled to be awarded a temporary allowance, reaches the age of fifteen, before the end of the sixth month from the date on which the qualifying injury was sustained, he shall, subject to all the provisions of this Chapter, then become entitled to be awarded a temporary allowance.

PART III.

DISABILITY PENSIONS TO PERSONS WHO HAVE SUSTAINED INJURIES CAUSING SERIOUS AND PROLONGED DISABLEMENT.Disability
pensions.

12. Where a qualifying injury sustained by a person causes him serious and prolonged disablement, he shall be entitled to be awarded in respect of that injury a pension (in this Scheme referred to as a disability pension), in accordance with the following provisions of this Scheme.

Assessment
of degree of disablement.

13. (1) For the purpose of assessing the rate of disability pension, disablements shall be expressed in percentages as set forth in the Schedule II to this Scheme. Where there is more than one disablement the total disablement shall be expressed as the sum of the disablements, so however as not in any case to exceed 100 per cent.

(2) When the wound, injury or illness causing the disablement is one not provided for in the Schedule II to this Scheme, the disablement shall be estimated by a competent medical authority at the percentage shown in the said Schedule most closely corresponding to it.

20 to 40	8	6 0 0

(2) Where the disablement is not more than 50 per cent., the Claims Officer may, if he is satisfied that the injured person is not debarred from all means of livelihood, substitute for the disability pension a lump sum payment calculated at 70 times the monthly payment specified in the foregoing sub-clause.

Commencement
of disability pension, revision of award
after two years or otherwise.

15. (1) If before the end of the sixth month from the date on which the injury was received, the competent medical authority certifies that the disablement caused to a person by a qualifying injury is permanent and incapable of diminution, the Claims Officer may at once award to that person, in accordance with sub-clause (1) of clause 14, a disability pension payable for life, or in accordance with sub-clause (2) of clause 14, a lump sum payment.

(2) If at the end of the six months from the date on which the injury was received, or at any time within those six months when the injured person ceases to be entitled to a temporary allowance, it remains uncertain whether the disablement is permanent and incapable of diminution, the pension shall in the first instance be awarded for two years only, and, on the expiry of those two years, shall be awarded for life in accordance with the assessment then made by the competent medical authority of the percentage of disablement subsisting.

(3) Where a disability pension, but not a lump sum payment in substitution therefor, has been awarded, and thereafter the disablement increases to a higher percentage than that on which the award was based, and such increase is certified by a competent medical authority to be attributable to the original qualifying injury, the Claims Officer may increase the disability pension to the appropriate higher rate with effect from the date on which the increased disablement is established by the certificate of the competent medical authority.

(4) Where a disability pension, but not a lump sum payment in substitution therefor, has been awarded, and thereafter the disablement decreases to a lower percentage than that on which the award was based, the Claims Officer may decrease the disability pension to the appropriate lower rate with effect from the date on which the decreased disablement is established by the certificate of the competent medical authority.

Mode of payment.

16. Disability pensions shall be payable quarterly in arrears:

Provided that if the Claims Officer considers that this course may result in hardship in any particular case he may order that the pension shall be payable monthly in arrears.

Cancellation of award on failure to draw pension.

17. (1) Where a person to whom a disability pension has been awarded, fails to draw that pension for a continuous period of not less than twelve months, the Claims Officer shall cancel the award, and no payment of the arrears of that pension shall be made.

(2) Where a person, to whom a lump sum payment has been awarded under sub-clause (2) of clause 14 fails to draw that sum within twelve months from the date of the award, the Claims Officer shall cancel the award and no further claim to pension or to lump sum payment shall be entertained:

Provided that if the Claims Officer is satisfied that there were good and sufficient reasons for the failure referred to in sub-clause (1) of this sub-clause, he may condone the failure.

Awards in
which clause 30
applies.

18. When a person who, but for the provisions of clause 30 of this Scheme, should have been entitled to be awarded a disability pension, reaches the age of fifteen, he shall then become entitled to be awarded a disability pension, the amount of the award being based on his disablement as assessed at the time he reached the age of fifteen.

PART IV.

FAMILY PENSIONS AND CHILDREN'S ALLOWANCES.

Family
pensions
and children's allowances,
purpose
and amount.

19. (1) When a person dies as the result of a qualifying injury, there shall be payable, in accordance with the following provisions of this Scheme—

(a) to one surviving eligible member of his family a pension, in this Scheme referred to as a family pension, and

(b) to each of his legitimate children an allowance in this Scheme referred to as a child's allowance.

(2) A family pension, though payable to one surviving eligible member of a family only, is intended for the support of all surviving eligible members of the family.

(3) The amount of a family pension shall, subject to the provisions of clause 32 of this Scheme, be eight rupees monthly.

(4) The amount of the child's allowance shall, subject to the provisions of clause 32 of this Scheme, be two rupees monthly for each child so long as a family pension continues to be paid to any surviving eligible member of the family, and three rupees monthly for each child if no family pension is being paid.

(5) If the person to whom a family pension is payable is a minor, the pension shall be paid for the benefit of the eligible members of the family to the legal guardian of such a person.

(6) A child's allowance payable to a minor child shall, unless the Claims Officer otherwise directs, be paid for the benefit of the child to the person to whom the family pension under the award is payable, or if such person is himself a minor or if no family pension is payable under the award, to the legal guardian of the child.

Members of a family who are eligible.

20. "Eligible member of a family" means, in relation to a person dying as the result of a qualifying injury,—

- (i) his widow lawfully married by a valid ceremony;
- (ii) his father;
- (iii) his mother;
- (iv) a legitimate son but not an adopted son;
- (v) a legitimate daughter but not an adopted daughter;

provided in each case that none of the conditions necessary for eligibility under clause 21 is infringed.

Conditions
of eligibility.

21. The following are the conditions governing the eligibility of the five classes of persons mentioned in clause 20:—

(1) A widow shall not be eligible if she remarries, unless such marriage is with her deceased husband's brother and she continues to live a communal life with, or to contribute to the support of, other living eligible members.

(2) The father shall not be eligible if at the time of the qualifying injury he is below the age of 50, unless he is physically or mentally unable to support himself, but he becomes eligible on attaining the age of 50.

(3) The mother shall not be eligible if at the time of the qualifying injury the father of the deceased is still alive, but shall become eligible on his death for so long as she remains unmarried. If she is a widow at the time of the qualifying injury she shall continue to be eligible only so long as she remains unmarried. If at the time of the qualifying injury she was already remarried to a husband other than the father of the deceased she shall be eligible and shall continue to be eligible if thereafter widowed for so long as she remains unmarried.

(4) A son shall not be eligible if he is above the age of 15 unless he is physically or mentally unable to support himself.

(5) A daughter shall not be eligible, if she has a husband living, or marries.

Family
pension by whom to be received.

22. (1) Where there are surviving eligible members of more than one of the classes specified in the list in clause 20, the family pension shall be payable to the member specified earliest in that list, of two or more widows the longest married taking precedence, and of two or more children the eldest taking precedence.

(2) Where there is no widow surviving and the family pension has not been made payable to the father of the deceased solely because the father had not yet reached the age of fifty, it shall unless it has under the provisions of sub-clause (3) of this clause ceased to be payable, be made payable to him on his attaining the age of fifty, subject to the sub-clause next following.

(3) When the member to whom the family pension is payable under the foregoing provisions of this clause dies or ceases to be eligible, then, whether there are other eligible members surviving or not, the family pension shall cease altogether to be payable except as provided in clause 25.

(4) No claim to receive a family pension shall be entertained if made by a member who has, by the time the claim is preferred, already ceased to be eligible.

Date from which family
takes effect.

23. A family pension when awarded shall become payable as from the day following that on which the qualifying injury causing the death was sustained:

Provided that where the family member, to whom the pension would have been payable on that day, has, before the Claims Officer has made the award, died or ceased to be eligible and the pension has consequently become payable to another member, the pension shall be payable to the last mentioned member as from the day following that on which the first mentioned member died or ceased to be eligible, and the arrears from the day following that on which the qualifying injury occurred up to the day on which the first mentioned member died or ceased to be eligible shall, subject to the provisions governing the payment of belated claims, be paid to the first mentioned member or his estate:

Provided further that if, before the Claims Officer has made the award, all the members who were eligible on the day following that on which the qualifying injury occurred have died or ceased to be eligible, the Claims Officer shall have full power to dispose of any arrears as he may think fit.

Division
of family

24. (1) If the Claims Officer is satisfied, on application made to him, that the member to whom a family pension is payable refuses to contribute reasonably to the support of the other eligible members of the family or that a family pension payable to a child is not being utilised for the benefit of the other eligible member of the family, he may divide the pension at his discretion among all the eligible members and make it payable as so divided to each member individually.

(2) Any such division shall not affect the provisions contained in sub-clause (3) of clause 22 but, so long as the member to whom the pension is originally awarded continues to be alive and eligible, if any member receiving one of the divided portions of the pension dies or ceases to be eligible, his share shall be added to the amount distributable to the member or members still surviving and eligible.

(3) A division under this clause shall not ordinarily be made at the instance of children in receipt of children's allowances, but the Claims Officer may even in such a case at his discretion make a division of the family pension to avert special hardship.

Continuance of family
pension.

25. (1) A family pension which ceases to be payable under sub-clause (3) of clause 22 may, either in whole or in part, be continued by the Claims Officer or be made again payable, if he is satisfied that by the cessation of the pension the father or mother of the deceased or both who would but for the operation of that sub-clause have been at the time eligible members of the family, are left destitute.

(2) If the Claims Officer decides to continue or restore a family pension under the foregoing provisions of this clause, the pension shall be payable, from such date as the Claims Officer may fix, not being earlier than the date on which the application for continuance or restoration is first received by the Claims Officer, to the father if living and would have been eligible at the time but for the operation of sub-clause (3) of clause 22 or, if the father is not living, to the mother if she would have been eligible at the time but for the operation of these sub-clauses; but the amount of the pension shall be reduced by the amount of any income from permanent sources available to the father or mother or both.

(3) A family pension so continued or restored shall cease altogether to be payable when the person to whom it is continued or restored dies or ceases to be eligible.

Duration of payment of children's allowances.

26. A child's allowance shall cease to be payable—

(a) to a male on his attaining the age of 15, and

(b) to a female on her attaining the age of 16 or on her marriage, whichever of these dates is the later.

Provided that the Claims Officer may, if satisfied that the person to whom the allowance is payable is physically or mentally unable to support himself, continue the allowance, so however that it shall cease to be payable to a female on her marriage.

Mode of payment
of family
pensions
and children's allowances.

27. Family pensions and children's allowance shall be paid quarterly in arrears:

Provided that, if the Claims Officer considers that this course might result in hardship in any particular case, he may order that the pension or allowance shall be payable monthly in arrears.

No award when death occurs more than seven y after injury.

28. No award of family pension or child's allowance shall be made in any case where the death giving rise to the claim occurs more than seven years after the date on which the qualifying injury causing the death was sustained.

29. Where a family pension or a child's allowance which has been awarded has not been drawn for a continuous period of not less than 12 months the Claims Officer shall cancel the award, and no payment of the arrears of that pension or allowance shall be made:

Provided that if the Claims Officer is satisfied that there were good and sufficient reasons for the failure to draw the pension or allowance during each period he may condone the failure.

PART V.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO AWARDS GENERALLY.

No awards in respect of war injuries to gainfully occupied persons under fifteen years of age.

Applications for awards.

30. No payment under this Scheme shall, save as provided in clauses 11 and 18 be made in respect of any war injury sustained by a gainfully occupied person who is under the age of fifteen.

31. (1) Except where the Claims Officer in any special case otherwise directs, an award under this Scheme shall not be made unless an application for that award is made in the manner prescribed by the regulations made under this Scheme and within the following periods, namely:—

- (a) where the claim is for a temporary allowance to a person incapacitated for work, a period of three months from the date of the qualifying injury, or if the incapacity first supervened after that period, a period of three months from the inception of the incapacity;
- (b) where the claim is for a disability pension, a period of three months from the date of the qualifying injury, or if the injury necessitated immediate treatment in hospital, a period of three months from the date of discharge from hospital;
- (c) where the claim is for a family pension or child's allowance, a period of three months from the date of the death of the person whose death gave rise to the claim.

(2) The Claims Officer may refuse to entertain any application for any allowance or pension under this scheme in respect of a qualifying injury sustained by a person who has, without sufficient cause, failed to present himself for treatment at a hospital, dispensary or first-aid post.

Limitations on amount of awards.

32. (1) The amount awarded to a person as temporary allowance when incapacitated or as disability pension when disabled shall be subject to the following modifications, namely:—

- (a) where such person is a woman, the amount shall be reduced by 20 per cent.,
- (b) while such person is under the age of 18, the amount which would otherwise be payable shall be reduced by 25 per cent.,
- (c) while such person is under treatment in a hospital, the amount which would otherwise be payable shall be reduced by 20 per cent.

(2) The amount awarded as family pension or children's pensions or both in respect of a person dying as the result of a qualifying injury shall not exceed the amount which might have been awarded to that person had he qualified for a disability pension assessed on a disablement of 100 per cent.

Payment under this Scheme not to be drawn in addition to other payment from public funds.

33. Where the person entitled to a temporary allowance, disability pension, family pension or child's allowance in respect of a qualifying injury is in receipt of a pension or allowance from public funds paid to him by reason of his having sustained that qualifying injury or as the case may be by reason of the death of another person as the result of that qualifying injury, he shall be allowed to draw only the amount, if any, by which the pension or allowance to which he is entitled under this scheme exceeds the pension or allowance referred to, received by him from public funds.

Two payments under this Scheme not to be drawn by same person.

Awards when not to be made.

34. No person in receipt of an allowance or pension under this Scheme shall be allowed to draw another allowance or pension of a different kind under this Scheme until the allowance or pension previously drawn is surrendered.

35. (1) No award under this Scheme shall be made in respect of—

- (a) an injury sustained whether in or outside British India by a person resident outside British India, or
- (b) an injury sustained by a person ordinarily resident in British India while absent from British India for personal, domestic or pleasure purposes:

Provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall preclude the making of an award in respect of—

- (i) a war injury sustained by a civil defence volunteer, or
- (ii) a war injury sustained by a person ordinarily resident in British India while travelling by sea or by air between any one place in British India and any other place in British India, or
- (iii) a war injury sustained in British India by a person ordinarily resident outside British India.

(2) The Claims Officer may withhold or cancel the award of any payment under this Scheme, if he is satisfied that the person to whom the award might be or has been made is or has become ordinarily resident outside British India.

Effect of contributory negligence.

36. Where the qualifying injury, or where the incapacity for work, disablement or death resulting from a qualifying injury is shown to the satisfaction of the Claims Officer to be mainly attributable to the negligence or misconduct of the person sustaining the injury, the Claims Officer may withhold or cancel any award which might be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of their injury or may reduce the amount of the award.

Effect of desertion of post by member of civil defence organisation.

37. When the person sustaining a qualifying injury is a member of a civil defence organisation and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Claims Officer that such person when required by Government order to be present in a certain locality, or at a certain post failed to be present or being present failed to remain in that locality or at that post as the case may be, the Claims Officer may withhold or cancel any award which might be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of that injury.

Effect of refusal to undergo medical treatment or operation.

38. Where a person who has sustained a qualifying injury refuses to undergo medical treatment or an operation calculated to restore his health or to cure or reduce a disablement caused by the qualifying injury, and a competent medical authority certifies that such refusal is in the circumstances unreasonable, then:—

- (a) if the person dies, and a competent medical authority certifies that the death was due to the refusal to undergo medical treatment or an operation, no family pension or child's allowance shall be awarded;
- (b) if a competent medical authority certifies that medical treatment or an operation will cure the disablement caused by the qualifying injury, no disability pension shall be awarded; and
- (c) if a competent medical authority certifies that medical treatment or an operation will reduce the disablement to a lower percentage, a disability pension appropriate to that lower percentage only shall be awarded.

Obligation to submit to medical examination.

39. (1) Any person in receipt of a temporary allowance or disability pension shall, if required by the Claims Officer by notice in writing so to do, submit himself for medical examination by the competent medical authority:

Provided that a person shall not be required so to present himself—

- (a) if in receipt of a temporary allowance, at intervals of less than two months, or
- (b) if in receipt of a disability pension which has not been awarded for life, at intervals of less than six months, or
- (c) if in receipt of a disability pension which has been awarded for life, at intervals of less than two years.

(2) Where any person refuses or, without reasonable cause, fails to submit himself for medical examination when required so to do under sub-clause (1), the Claims Officer may cancel with effect from the date of such refusal or failure, the award of allowance or pension made to that person.

(3) Where the award has been cancelled under sub-clause (2), the Claims Officer may refuse to entertain any subsequent application for an allowance or pension under the Scheme in respect of the injury for which the cancelled award was made.

Where payee is incapable of managing his own affairs.

Ordinances promulgated by the Governor-General.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

New Delhi, the 2nd January, 1942.

ORDINANCE No. II of 1942.

AN

to provide for the setting up of special criminal Courts.

WHEREAS an emergency has arisen which makes it necessary to provide for the setting up of special criminal Courts;

Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Government of India Act as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, the Governor General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:—

26 Geo.
5, c. 2.

Short title,
extent and operation.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Special Criminal Courts Ordinance, 1942.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force in any Province only if the Provincial Government, being satisfied of the existence of an emergency arising from a hostile attack on India or on a country neighbouring on India or from the imminence of such an attack, by notification in the official Gazette, declares it to be in force in the Province, and shall cease to be in force when such notification is rescinded:

Provided that any trial or proceeding which was pending at the time of such rescission may be continued and completed as if the provisions of this Ordinance were still in force.

Definition.

2. In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "Provincial Government" means, in relation to a Chief Commissioner's Province, the Chief Commissioner.

Special Courts.

3. Courts of criminal jurisdiction may be constituted under this Ordinance of the following classes, namely:—

- (i) Special Judges;
- (ii) Special Magistrates;
- (iii) Summary Courts.

Special Judges.

4. The Provincial Government may appoint to be a Special Judge for such area as it may think fit any person who has acted for a period of not less than two years in the exercise of the powers of a Sessions Judge or an Assistant Sessions Judge under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter in this Ordinance referred to as the Code). V of 1898.

Jurisdiction of Special Judges.

5. A Special Judge shall try such offences or classes of offences, or such cases or classes of cases as the Provincial Government, or a servant of the Crown empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf, may, by general or special order in writing, direct.

Procedure of Special Judges.

6. (1) A Special Judge may take cognizance of offences without the accused being committed to his Court for trial, and, in trying accused persons, shall follow the procedure prescribed by the Code for the trial of warrant cases by Magistrates:

Provided that a Special Judge shall ordinarily record a memorandum only of the substance of the evidence of each witness examined, may refuse to summon any witness if satisfied after examination of the accused that the evidence of such witness will not be material, and shall not be bound to adjourn any trial for any purpose unless such adjournment is, in his opinion, necessary in the interests of justice.

(2) In matters not coming within the scope of subsection (1), the provisions of the Code, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Ordinance, shall apply to the proceedings of a Special Judge; and for the purposes of the said provisions the Court of the Special Judge shall be deemed to be a Court of Session.

Sentences by Special Judges.

7. A Special Judge may pass any sentence authorised by law.

Review of convictions.

8. If in any proceedings before a Special Judge—

- (a) a person convicted is sentenced to death, or to transportation for life, or to imprisonment for a term of seven years or more, or
- (b) though no person is so sentenced, the Special Judge certifies that in his opinion the case has involved questions of special difficulty, whether of law or fact, or is one which for any other reason ought properly to be reviewed, the proceedings shall be submitted for review by a person nominated in this behalf by the Provincial Government, which person shall be chosen from the Judges of the High Court having jurisdiction over the area for which the Special Judge is appointed, and the decision of that person shall be final.

Special Magistrates.	9. Any Presidency Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class who has exercised powers as such for a period of not less than two years may be invested by the Provincial Government with the powers of a Special Magistrate under this Ordinance.
Jurisdiction of Special Magistrates.	10. A Special Magistrate shall try such offences or classes of offences, or such cases or classes of cases other than offences or cases involving offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code with death, as the Provincial Government, or a servant of the Crown empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf, may, by general or special order in writing, direct. XLV of 1860.
Procedure of Special Magistrates.	11. (1) In the trial of any case, a Special Magistrate shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (1) of section 6 for the trial of cases by a Special Judge. (2) In matters not coming within the scope of sub-section (1), the provisions of the Code, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Ordinance, shall apply to the proceedings of a Special Magistrate; and for the purposes of the said provisions the Special Magistrate shall be deemed to be a Magistrate of the first class.
Sentences by Special Magistrates.	12. (1) A Special Magistrate may pass any sentence authorised by law, except a sentence of death or of transportation or imprisonment exceeding seven years. (2) If a Special Magistrate is of opinion that an offence under trial by him requires a punishment in excess of that which he is empowered to inflict, he shall stay proceedings and send the case for trial to the Special Judge having jurisdiction in the area, and the Special Judge shall thereupon have jurisdiction to try the case as if it had been made over to him by order in writing made under section 5.
Appeals.	13. (1) Where a Special Magistrate passes a sentence of transportation or imprisonment for a term exceeding two years, an appeal shall lie to the Special Judge having jurisdiction in the area or, if there is no Special Judge for the area, to the High Court in a Presidency-town and elsewhere to the Court of Session. (2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be presented within seven days from the date of the sentence. (3) In disposing of an appeal under this section, a Special Judge shall follow the same procedure and have the same powers as an appellate Court follows and has under the Code.
Distribution of cases.	14. If any question arises whether, under any order made under section 5 or section 10, an offence is triable by a Special Judge or a Special Magistrate, the question shall be referred for decision to the authority which made the order and the decision of that authority shall be final.
Summary Courts.	15. The Provincial Government may, by general or special order in writing, empower any Magistrate appointed under the provisions of the Code to exercise the powers of a Summary Court in any area specified in the order.
Jurisdiction of Summary Courts.	16. (1) A Summary Court shall have power to try such offences or classes of offences, or such cases or classes of cases as the District Magistrate, or in a Presidency-town the Chief Presidency Magistrate, or a servant of the Crown authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate or Chief Presidency Magistrate, may by general or special order direct:

Provided that no person shall be tried by a Summary Court for an offence which is punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding two years, unless it is an offence specified in sub-section (1) of section 260 of the Code.

(2) The District Magistrate or Chief Presidency Magistrate may by general or special order give directions as to the distribution among the Summary Courts within his jurisdiction of cases triable by them under sub-section (1).

Procedure of Summary
Courts.

17. In the trial of any case a Summary Court shall, as far as possible, follow the procedure laid down in the Code for the trial of warrant cases, and shall have all the powers conferred by the Code on a Magistrate:

Provided that the Court shall not be required to record more than a memorandum of the evidence or to frame a formal charge:

Provided further that, in the trial of any offence punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, the Court may follow the procedure for the summary trial of cases in which an appeal lies laid down in Chapter XXII of the Code.

Sentences by Summary
Courts.

18. Summary Courts may pass any sentence which may be passed by a Magistrate of the first class.

Appeals.

19. (1) If a Summary Court, in a case tried according to the procedure for the trial of warrant cases, passes a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding three months or of fine exceeding two hundred rupees or in a case tried by summary procedure passes a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding one month or of fine exceeding fifty rupees, an appeal shall lie in a Presidency-town to the Chief Presidency Magistrate and elsewhere to the Special Magistrate or other Magistrate of the first class appointed by the District Magistrate of the district in which the Summary Court is situated to hear appeals from that Court.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be presented within seven days from the date of the sentence.

(3) In disposing of an appeal under this section, the appellate Court shall follow the same procedure and have the same powers as an appellate Court follows and has under the Code.

Procedure
when Summary
Court considers case triable
by another
Court.

20. (1) If a Summary Court is of opinion that the offence disclosed is one which it is not empowered to try, it shall send the case for trial to the Special Judge or Special Magistrate empowered to try the case under this Ordinance or, if no such Court has been so empowered, to an ordinary criminal Court having jurisdiction.

(2) If a Summary Court is of opinion that an offence which it is empowered to try should be tried by a Court of superior jurisdiction, or that it requires a punishment in excess of that which the Summary Court is empowered to inflict, it shall stay proceedings and report the case to the District Magistrate or in a Presidency-town to the Chief Presidency Magistrate who may—

- (a) direct that the case shall be tried by a Summary Court, or
- (b) send it to a Court constituted under this Ordinance having jurisdiction, or to an ordinary criminal Court having jurisdiction, or
- (c) report it for the orders of the Provincial Government.

Powers of Special Courts to deal with refractory accused.

21. (1) Where an accused, in a trial before a Court constituted under this Ordinance, has, by his voluntary act, rendered himself incapable of appearing before the Court, or resists his production before it, or behaves before it in a persistently disorderly manner, the Court may, at any stage of the trial, by order in writing made after such inquiry as it may think fit, dispense with the attendance of such accused for such period as it may think fit, and proceed with the trial in his absence.

(2) Where a plea is required in answer to a charge from an accused whose attendance has been dispensed with under sub-section (1), such accused shall be deemed not to plead guilty.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) dispensing with the attendance of an accused shall not affect his right of being represented by a pleader at any stage of the trial, or being present in person if he has become capable of appearing, or appears in Court and undertakes to behave in an orderly manner.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, no finding, sentence or order passed in a trial before a Court constituted under this Ordinance shall be held to be illegal by reason of any omission or irregularity whatsoever arising from the absence of any or all of the accused whose attendance has been dispensed with under sub-section (1).

Powers of Special Courts to exclude the public.

22. A Court constituted under this Ordinance may if it thinks fit, order at any stage of a trial that the public generally or any particular persons shall not have access to or be or remain in the room or building used by the Court.

Special
rule of evidence.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, when the statement of any person has been recorded by any Magistrate, such statement may be admitted in evidence in any trial before a Court constituted under this Ordinance, if such person is dead or cannot be found or is incapable of giving evidence.

1 of 1872.

Special rule of procedure.

24. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 386 of the Code, where any offender has been sentenced by a Court constituted under this Ordinance to pay a fine, the Court may recover the fine by the issue of a warrant for the levy of the amount by attachment and sale of any property, movable or immovable, of the offender.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 545 of the Code, a Court constituted under this Ordinance may, when imposing a fine on any person convicted by the Court, order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be applied—

(a) in the payment to any person affected by the offence of compensation for any loss, injury or annoyance caused by the offence, or

(b) in the payment of a reward to any person who has given information leading to the detection of the offence or to the conviction of the accused.

Legal practitioners.

25. A Court constituted under this Ordinance shall not be required to grant an adjournment for the purpose of securing the attendance of a legal practitioner, if in the opinion of the Court such adjournment would cause unreasonable delay in the disposal of the case.

Exclusion of interference of other Courts.

26. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Code, or of any other law for the time being in force, or of anything having the force of law by whatsoever authority made or done, there shall, save as provided in this Ordinance, be no appeal from any order or sentence of a Court constituted under this Ordinance and, save as aforesaid, no Court shall have authority to revise such order or sentence, or to transfer any case from any such Court, or to make any order under section 491 of the Code or have any jurisdiction of any kind in respect of any proceedings of any such Court.

Application of ordinary law.

27. The provisions of the Code and of any other law for the time being in force, in so far as they may be applicable and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall apply to all matters connected with, arising from or consequent upon a trial by special criminal Courts constituted under this Ordinance.

Factory smoke.

The Bengal Smoke Nuisances Commission commenced its activities in 1906 for the abatement of smoke emission within the areas controlled by the Calcutta and the Howrah Municipalities. The average emission of black smoke recorded per chimney was at that time 13.1 minutes per hour; to-day it stands at .09 minutes. Much of this success is due to the generous co-operation of the factory owners with the Commission. It is realised that smoke is coal and in its prevention lies a gilt-edged investment.

General control by the Commission.

The Commission which represents all the interests concerned in the abatement of smoke nuisance held 11 meetings in the year under review. It maintained contact, as in the past, with the various smoke departments, fuel, engineering and research institutions in Europe and America and kept abreast of the latest progress in the scientific use of fuel towards the abatement of industrial smoke.

During the year action was taken as under—

Offences reported for departmental action—3,372.

Offences reported by telephone for departmental action—774.

Inspections and tests of installation—4,197.

Statutory warnings served—16.

Prosecutions—41.

Convictions—35.

In addition to the above preventive action 1,082 steam ships and 450 locomotives were reported to the local marine and railway authorities for their usual departmental action which in all cases was readily undertaken.

Since the appointment of the two smoke observers in October 1938 the area under the control of the Commission including the river has been kept under constant observation. The Inspectors having thus been relieved of observation duty, were engaged in inspection duty and in imparting technical advice to the offenders.

The Inspectors met with difficulty in proving in Court the official records of smoke observation in prosecution cases and the Court Inspector had to be engaged to conduct contested cases. The maximum fine imposed for offences under the Act was Rs. 150 and the minimum Rs. 4.

Of the 41 prosecutions which were launched (Appendix II) one was acquitted and one was warned. Five cases had to be withdrawn because the requirements of the Act were complied with in the meantime.

It may be again stated that the policy of the Commission is to give advice and not to be unduly repressive.

Observation of smoke.

A constant watch is kept on smoke nuisance from the Central Smoke Observatory which is equipped with a telephone so that the owner or manager of an offensive chimney may be called up and the emission of smoke of prohibited density immediately brought to his notice. Observation of locomotives, steamers, launches, road-rollers and minor industrial plants are taken locally. The total number of observations made during the year was 8,749 against 10,053 of the previous year.

Plans for furnaces, flues and chimneys.

Well designed plants are necessary for smoke prevention and fuel economy and it is not only obligatory but convenient to consult the Commission whose wide experience is always at the disposal of the public. Smoke prevention must begin at the furnace and not at the chimney top. Properly proportioned furnaces, flues and chimneys increase the power of the plant and reduce the overload and fuel costs and, on the other hand, avoid trouble in complying with the requirements of the Smoke Nuisances Act.

During the year the Commission examined and approved 82 plans of which 54 were made in the office of the Commission, covering nearly all types of industrial furnaces. The number of plans approved by the Commission since 1916, when the Act was amended to govern construction of or alteration to plants, now totals 1,601. The low average emission of smoke per chimney (Appendix I) has been attained through this most important measure.

The total fees received during the year on account of plans, etc., are detailed below :—

	Rs.
For making plans	502
For approval of plans	743
For final inspection of chimney, etc., and grant of permission	1,213
Total	2,458

Complaints.

The Commission cannot with its small staff regularly keep in touch with every case of smoke nuisance within its controlled area of approximately 80 square miles. It has again been indebted to the public for bringing cases to its notice by means of complaints. During the year 83 complaints were received against 84 in the preceding year. The Commission once more assures the public that on receipt of a complaint prompt and careful enquiry is made. Relief is given wherever possible and the Commission endeavours to see that industry is not subjected to unreasonable demands.

Reduction of smoke by electricity and gas.

Electricity.

The application of electricity and gas to meet domestic requirements has an important bearing on the general comfort and the health of the public and it is pleasing to record that there is an increased demand by property owners for smokeless appliances as these contribute to the city's health.

Electric appliances both for commercial and domestic use should be encouraged as permanent remedies for atmospheric pollution.

The Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation state as follows:—

“During the year 1940 they have signed agreements for the supply of electricity to large works and mills in their licensed areas to a value of over 13,000 H. P. of which more than 8,800 H. P. is required to replace the existing steam turbines and steam engines. In addition to the foregoing there have been a number of smaller works and factories which adopted electrical drives in place of steam engines during the past year”.

Gas.

The contribution made to the solution of the city's smoke problem by the Oriental Gas Company, Ltd., increases every year. They report a continued increase in the installation of cooking and water heating appliances for domestic purposes and they have fitted up several large blocks of flats with gas appliances during the year. They state that the demand for gas heated appliances during their last financial year (ending 30th June 1940) continued very satisfactorily.

During the period the number of appliances installed showed an increase of 1,024 nett.

Three hundred and eighteen cooking appliances comprising cookers, hot plates, grillers, ring burners were fitted for domestic, hotel and restaurant use.

Three hundred and twenty-nine water heating appliances (geysers, etc.), were installed.

They have also been very successful in the industrial field and the total number of industrial appliances fitted within the last year was 377 comprising muffle and oven furnaces, steam boilers, large ring burners, tinman's stoves, biscuit baking ovens, etc.

The value of gas as a smokeless fuel in a convenient form is readily appreciated by property owners and residents and, in many cases, gas appliances have been installed to take the place of coal “chulas” and solid fuel boilers.

Inspectorate.

During the year Mr. R. Grant, Chief Inspector and Secretary, was assisted by Mr. B. N. Mitter and Mr. B. Mukerjee, Inspectors of Smoke Nuisances.

Conclusion.

The Commission records its grateful thanks to the various smoke fuel and engineering research departments. Thanks are also due to those local owners, managers and engineers whose co-operation and valuable assistance have greatly helped the Commission, and to the technical staff for their energy and loyalty in carrying out the policy of the Commission.

R. GRANT,

Chief Inspector and Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL

Dacca, the 18th December 1941.

First Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 3.4 per cent. and that of rape and mustard 12.6 per cent. of the total area under these crops in India.)

Explanatory.—Three forecasts are issued for the Spring Oilseed Crops. The present one deals with the area sown and the condition of the crops.

Area sown.—Spring oilseeds are chiefly grown in the Presidency, Rajshahi and Dacca Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is not so extensive. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 940,300 acres this year against 942,700 and 952,300 acres respectively in the corresponding and the final forecasts of last year.

Character of the season.—The weather at the outset was favourable for preparatory tillage and sowings which commenced generally in normal time; but the operations were somewhat delayed in places owing to heavy rainfall. Subsequent weather conditions were helpful for late sowings and favoured the growth of the crops. In some districts, however, heavy rainfall interfered with the growth to some extent. The present condition of the crops may be regarded as fair.

M. CARBERY,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

For the week ending on the 24th December 1941.

Summary.—The week was rainless. Prospect of the standing crops is favourable. Harvesting of winter paddy is much advanced. Sowing of spring crops is nearing completion. In Hooghly and Tippera 520 and 2,049 persons respectively received gratuitous relief and 4,904 persons were employed in test relief work in Tippera during the week. The average price of common rice for the province this week is about 6½ seers per rupee. It has fallen by about 0.24 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.
